

"I want you to know that I love to read books."

The Charms of My Life

Dara Ross, English Teacher
The Brooklyn International High School

Project Description:

Students were asked to write a list poem called "I Want You To Know..." that explained 10 things that they wanted their new classmates and teachers to know about them. They then created a set of charms using the imagery from their poems by using Tinkercad.com and our classroom Makerbot. It's was a great way for students to introduce and talk about themselves at the beginning of the year.

Student Work Examples and Quotes:

"I want you to know that I am afraid of spiders."

"I want you to know that I wish to be strong like Katniss from the Hunger Games."

"I want you to know that I love New York City."

"I want you to know that I love music and I want to learn to play the guitar."
